Wills

We will offer an expert service for the preparation of your Will. Regardless of whether your estate is simple or complex we can give effective advice to ensure your wishes are met and to give you peace of mind. Home visits by arrangement.

Lasting Powers of Attorney

We provide advice in relation to powers of attorney to ensure your personal affairs can be conducted efficiently by a third party if you are unable to act yourself. This can include Property and Financial Affairs and Health and Personal Welfare. We also advise in relation to Court of Protection matters.

Probate

Our full probate service has been trusted for generations to ensure estates are administered properly. This includes taxation and financial matters, advising executors, protect estates from claims and disputes and to ensure estates are distributed properly.

Trusts

We advise in relation to the creation and management of trusts.

Elderly Client Issues

We can advise in relation to local authority care charges, property and other financial matters. We also advise in relation to Court of Protection matters.
